Specification of Competency Standards of the Beauty Industry

Unit of Competency

Functional Area: Nail, Hand & Foot Care

Range Master various types of manicure and pedicure techniques and provide relevant services to customers at beauty salons and locations providing hand and foot care according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene. Level 3 Credit 6 Competency Performance Requirements 1. Understand manicure and pedicure techniques • Understand the causes and features of finger/toe nail abnormalities • Understand the structure and functions of finger/toe nails • Understand the effects, application techniques and procedures of various types of manicure and pedicure treatments • Understand the effects, application techniques and procedures of various types of manicure and pedicure tools and treatment products • Understand the shape of finger/toe nails and the manicure and pedicure techniques for them • Understand hand and foot massage techniques and their contraindications 2. Apply manicure and pedicure techniques • Implement pre-treatment steriilization procedures and preparations according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene • Carry out customer consultation prior to treatment, and select suitable treatment products and plan according to the health condition of the customers' finger/toe nails • Master manicure/pedicure techniques and use relevant tools and products safely and effectively according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene to perform manicure/pedicure treatment • Give suitable advice to the customers on nail care at home The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency: • Capable to master manicure/pedicure techniques to perform manicure/pedicure treatment safely and effectively according to the customers' needs and finger/toe nail condition.	Title	Master manicure and pedicure techniques customers at beauty salons and locations providing hand and foot care according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene. Level 3 Credit 6 Competency Performance Requirements 1. Understand manicure and pedicure techniques • Understand the causes and features of finger/toe nail abnormalities • Understand the structure and functions of finger/toe nails • Understand the causes and features of finger/toe nail common problems • Understand the effects, procedures and contraindications for various types of manicure and pedicure treatments • Understand the effects, application techniques and procedures of various types of manicure and pedicure tools and treatment products • Understand the shape of finger/toe nails and the manicure and pedicure techniques for them • Understand hand and foot massage techniques and their contraindications 2. Apply manicure and pedicure techniques • Implement pre-treatment sterilization procedures and preparations according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene • Carry out customer consultation prior to treatment, and select suitable treatment products and plan according to the health condition of the customers' finger/toe nails • Master manicure/pedicure techniques and use relevant tools and products safely and effectively according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene to perform manicure/pedicure treatment • Give suitable advice to the customers on nail care at home Assessment Criteria The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency: • Capable to master manicure/pedicure techniques to perform manicure/pedicure treatment safely and effectively according to the customers' needs and finger/toe nail condition.	Code	106902L3
Credit 6 Competency Performance Requirements 1. Understand manicure and pedicure techniques • Understand the causes and features of finger/toe nail abnormalities • Understand the structure and functions of finger/toe nails • Understand the structure and functions of finger/toe nails • Understand the eauses and features of finger/toe nail common problems • Understand the effects, procedures and contraindications for various types of manicure and pedicure treatments • Understand the effects, application techniques and procedures of various types of manicure and pedicure tools and treatment products • Understand the shape of finger/toe nails and the manicure and pedicure techniques for them • Understand hand and foot massage techniques and their contraindications 2. Apply manicure and pedicure techniques • Implement pre-treatment sterilization procedures and preparations according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene • Carry out customer consultation prior to treatment, and select suitable treatment products and plan according to the health condition of the customers' finger/toe nails • Master manicure/pedicure techniques and use relevant tools and products safely and effectively according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene to perform manicure/pedicure treatment • Give suitable advice to the customers on nail care at home The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency: • Capable to master manicure/pedicure techniques to perform manicure/pedicure treatment safely and effectively according to the customers' needs and finger/toe nail condition.	Range	customers at beauty salons and locations providing hand and foot care according to the code of Competency Performance Requirements 1. Understand manicure and pedicure techniques Understand the causes and features of finger/toe nail abnormalities Understand the structure and functions of finger/toe nail common problems Understand the effects, procedures and contraindications for various types of manicure and pedicure treatments Understand the effects, application techniques and procedures of various types of manicure and pedicure tools and treatment products Understand the shape of finger/toe nails and the manicure and pedicure techniques for them Understand hand and foot massage techniques and their contraindications Apply manicure and pedicure techniques Implement pre-treatment sterilization procedures and preparations according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene Carry out customer consultation prior to treatment, and select suitable treatment products and plan according to the health condition of the customers' finger/toe nails Master manicure/pedicure techniques and use relevant tools and products safely and effectively according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene to perform manicure/pedicure treatment Give suitable advice to the customers on nail care at home The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency: Capable to master manicure/pedicure techniques to perform manicure/pedicure treatment safely and effectively according to the customers' needs and finger/toe nail condition.	Level	3
1. Understand manicure and pedicure techniques Understand the causes and features of finger/toe nail abnormalities Understand the structure and functions of finger/toe nails Understand the causes and features of finger/toe nail common problems Understand the effects, procedures and contraindications for various types of manicure and pedicure treatments Understand the effects, application techniques and procedures of various types of manicure and pedicure tools and treatment products Understand the shape of finger/toe nails and the manicure and pedicure techniques for them Understand hand and foot massage techniques and their contraindications Apply manicure and pedicure techniques Implement pre-treatment sterilization procedures and preparations according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene Carry out customer consultation prior to treatment, and select suitable treatment products and plan according to the health condition of the customers' finger/toe nails Master manicure/pedicure techniques and use relevant tools and products safely and effectively according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene to perform manicure/pedicure treatment Give suitable advice to the customers on nail care at home The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency: Capable to master manicure/pedicure techniques to perform manicure/pedicure treatment safely and effectively according to the customers' needs and finger/toe nail condition.	Credit	6
	Assessment	 1. Understand manicure and pedicure techniques Understand the causes and features of finger/toe nail abnormalities Understand the structure and functions of finger/toe nails Understand the causes and features of finger/toe nail common problems Understand the effects, procedures and contraindications for various types of manicure and pedicure treatments Understand the effects, application techniques and procedures of various types of manicure and pedicure tools and treatment products Understand the shape of finger/toe nails and the manicure and pedicure techniques for them Understand hand and foot massage techniques and their contraindications 2. Apply manicure and pedicure techniques Implement pre-treatment sterilization procedures and preparations according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene Carry out customer consultation prior to treatment, and select suitable treatment products and plan according to the health condition of the customers' finger/toe nails Master manicure/pedicure techniques and use relevant tools and products safely and effectively according to the code of practice for personal and working hygiene to perform manicure/pedicure treatment Give suitable advice to the customers on nail care at home The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency: Capable to master manicure/pedicure techniques to perform manicure/pedicure treatment
Remark
	Remark	