

Specification of Competency Standards of the Beauty and Hairdressing Industry

Unit of Competency

Functional Area: Hairstyle Design & Professional Techniques

Title	Help Perform Basic Perming
Code	105361L1
Range	This unit of competency (UoC) is applicable in hairdressing-related workplaces. Practitioners should be able to help perform perming service for customers under the instruction of hair stylists.
Level	1
Credit	3 (for reference only)
Competency	Performance Requirements <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Understand basic perming knowledge <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Know about basic perming knowledge, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Methods and techniques of analyzing hair texture • General wrapping techniques, e.g. projection angle, tension and pattern, etc. • Correct perming steps • Types of testing required and their importance, e.g.: elasticity test, curl test, etc. • Know about the differences between cold wave and heat perm and their effects • Know about the types, effects and correct and safe use of perming products • Understand the functions, correct and safe use of different perming tools and equipment • Know about the daily cleaning methods of different perming tools 2. Help perform basic perming <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Make preparations for perming, e.g.: prepare perming products and tools required • Employ basic perming knowledge to help perform general perming service for customers under the instruction of hair stylists according to codes of practice for personal and working hygiene • Observe whether there is any adverse effect on the customer or error occurred during the service, and make remedies accordingly 3. Exhibit professionalism <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensure the perming products used comply with the safety standards
Assessment Criteria	The integrated outcome requirement of this UoC is the ability to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Employ basic perming knowledge to help perform basic perming service for customers under the instruction of hair stylists according to customer requirements.
Remark	