1. Title	Implement work site occupational health and safety management
2. Code	EMCUSH206A
3. Range	Apply basic occupational health and safety management in electrical and mechanical workshops or work sites to assist in performing work site occupational health and safety management so as to minimize the risks in work sites.
4. Level	2
5. Credits	3
6. Competency	Performance Requirements
	 6.1 Basic knowledge of occupational safety management safety management occupational safety management work sites 6.2 Application of basic occupational health and safety management to assist in performing occupational health and safety management work sites so as to minimize the risks. Management in work site safety inspection Work site safety inspection Follow-up of protective measures Basic risk assessment Follow-up investigation of accident Assisting in safety promotion events Assisting in the implementation of safety policy and management targets for the company or clients
7. Assessment Criteria	Assisting in organizing group meetings The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency is: (i) Capable to perform occupational health and safety management and implement management items correctly and effectively in electrical and mechanical workshops or work sites.
8. Remarks	The credit value of this unit of competency is set on the presumption that the person already possesses basic occupational safety knowledge.