

1. Title	Repair deaerators
2. Code	EMPERM208A
3. Range	Perform routine repair for deaerators in general industrial plants, power plants or other places.
4. Level	2
5. Credits	6
6. Competency	Performance Requirements 6.1 Structure and basic working principles of deaerators <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Understand the functions, structure and basic working principles of deaerators in boiler systems 6.2 Techniques and procedures of repairing deaerators <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Understand common defects of general deaerators, their causes and techniques of handling them, and use general repair and testing instruments and tools to perform repair tasks ◆ Record the status of equipment before and after repair and the measures taken during repair 6.3 Professionalism in repairing deaerators <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Follow the requirements of the code of practice and manufacturer's repair guidelines to perform repair and maintenance for the deaerators ◆ Understand the need and principles of scheduled repair and maintenance of the deaerators, including inspecting, maintaining and testing them
7. Assessment Criteria	The integrated outcome requirements of this unit of competency are: (i) Capable to perform routine repair for the deaerators under instruction and according to guidelines; and (ii) Capable to complete repair report forms for the deaerators.
8. Remarks	The credit value of this unit of competency is set on the presumption that the person already possesses general bench fitting techniques and elementary mechanical knowledge.