Specification of Competency Standards for the Fashion Industry Unit of Competency

Functional Area - Merchandising & Material Procurement

Image Monitor progress of the material supply for the production of fashion products. This applies to individuals who are required to control the process of material supply that can meet the schedule and requirements for the production of fashion products. evel 4 tredit 3 competency Performance Requirements 1. Knowledge in the subject area Be able to Be able to • outline the process of material production or supply • identify personnel or parties involved in the process of materials supply to the production of fashion products • identify personnel or parties involved in the process of materials supply • identify personnel or parties involved in the process of materials supply • identify personnel or parties involved in the process of materials supply • identify personnel or parties involved in the process of materials supply • identify personnel or parties involved in the process of material production schedule, products • identify the contractual requirements for the materials (e.g. time of delivery, quality, quanity, place) and schedule plans (e.g. material production schedule, production schedule of fashion products) • set checkpoints to track the progress of the material supply (e.g. approval of colour sample, submission of test report, inspection) • monitor at each checkpoints out tack the progress of supply • set checkpoints to track the progress of update the supply status <th>Title</th> <th>Monitor material order</th>	Title	Monitor material order individuais who are required to control the process of material supply that can meet the schedule and requirements for the production of fashion products. evel 4 tredit 3 competency Performance Requirements 1. Knowledge in the subject area Be able to be outline the process of material production or supply relate the process of material supply to the production of fashion products identify personnel or parties involved in the process of materials supply identify checkpoints in the process for monitoring purposes prepare a progress report 2. Application and process Be able to identify the contractual requirements for the materials (e.g. time of delivery, quality, quantity, place) and schedule plans (e.g. material production schedule, production schedule of fashion products) set checkpoints to track the progress of the material supply (e.g. approval of colour sample, submission of test report, inspection) monitor at each checkpoint by collecting and evaluating related information and/or outcomes organise regular meetings with related parties to update the supply status report the progress by collating outcome data at the checkpoints identify problems or barriers that would affect the progress of supply consult related parties to effect solutions or make adjustments to the schedule or requirements 3. Exhibit professionalism Be able t	Code	110224L4 interedit 3 isompetency Performance Requirements 1. Knowledge in the subject area Be able to be outline the process of material production or supply relate the process of material supply to the production of fashion products identify personnel or parties involved in the process of materials supply identify checkpoints in the process for monitoring purposes prepare a progress report 2. Application and process Be able to identify the contractual requirements for the materials (e.g. time of delivery, quality, quantity, place) and schedule plans (e.g. material production schedule, production schedule of fashion products) set checkpoints to track the progress of the material supply (e.g. approval of colour sample, submission of test report, inspection) monitor at each checkpoint by collecting and evaluating related information and/or outcomes organise regular meetings with related parties to update the supply status report the progress by collating outcome data at the checkpoints identify problems or barriers that would affect the progress of supply consult related parties to effect solutions or make adjustments to the schedule or requirements 3. Exhibit professionalism Be able to identify problems or barriers that mould affect the progress and set checkpoints for monitoring purposes sessessment interia The integrated outcome requirem	Range	individuals who are required to control the process of material supply that can meet the Competency Performance Requirements 1. Knowledge in the subject area Be able to • outline the process of material production or supply • relate the process of material supply to the production of fashion products • identify personnel or parties involved in the process of materials supply • identify personnel or parties involved in the process of materials supply • identify personnel or parties involved in the process of materials supply • identify personnel or parties involved in the process • prepare a progress report 2. Application and process Be able to • identify the contractual requirements for the materials (e.g. time of delivery, quality, quantity, place) and schedule plans (e.g. material production schedule, production schedule of fashion products) • set checkpoints to track the progress of the material supply (e.g. approval of colour sample, submission of test report, inspection) • monitor at each checkpoint by collecting and evaluating related information and/or outcomes • organise regular meetings with related parties to update the supply status • report the progress by collating outcome data at the checkpoints • identify problems or barriers that would affect the progress of supply • consult related parties to effect solutions or make adjustments to the schedule or requirements • identify off-track signals that may jeopardise the whole production process • identify	Level	4
1. Knowledge in the subject area Be able to • outline the process of material production or supply • relate the process of material supply to the production of fashion products • identify personnel or parties involved in the process of materials supply • identify checkpoints in the process for monitoring purposes • prepare a progress report 2. Application and process Be able to • identify the contractual requirements for the materials (e.g. time of delivery, quality, quantity, place) and schedule plans (e.g. material production schedule, production schedule of fashion products) • set checkpoints to track the progress of the material supply (e.g. approval of colour sample, submission of test report, inspection) • monitor at each checkpoint by collecting and evaluating related information and/or outcomes • organise regular meetings with related parties to update the supply status • report the progress by collating outcome data at the checkpoints • identify problems or barriers that would affect the progress of supply • consult related parties to effect solutions or make adjustments to the schedule or requirements 3. Exhibit professionalism Be able to • identify off-track signals that may jeopardise the whole production process • demonstrate a full understanding of the material supply process and set checkpoints for monitoring purposes	Credit	3
• Preparation of a progress report for tracking the process of material supply against the pre-set schedule and requirements.	Competency	 Knowledge in the subject area Be able to outline the process of material production or supply relate the process of material supply to the production of fashion products identify personnel or parties involved in the process of materials supply identify checkpoints in the process for monitoring purposes prepare a progress report Application and process Be able to identify the contractual requirements for the materials (e.g. time of delivery, quality, quantity, place) and schedule plans (e.g. material production schedule, production schedule of fashion products) set checkpoints to track the progress of the material supply (e.g. approval of colour sample, submission of test report, inspection) monitor at each checkpoint by collecting and evaluating related information and/or outcomes organise regular meetings with related parties to update the supply status report the progress by collating outcome data at the checkpoints identify problems or barriers that would affect the progress of supply consult related parties to effect solutions or make adjustments to the schedule or requirements 3. Exhibit professionalism Be able to identify off-track signals that may jeopardise the whole production process demonstrate a full understanding of the material supply process and set checkpoints for monitoring purposes
iemark	Assessment Criteria	• Preparation of a progress report for tracking the process of material supply against the Remark	