Specification of Competency Standards for Human Resource Management

Unit of Competency

Code 106964L7 Range Translating the design and benefit from senio Level 7 Credit 7 Competency Performan 1. Knowled • Und rews • Und orga 2. Applicat • Forr and • Esta orga • Con • Forr deve 3. Professi • Esta the e • Inverse rews for t	a reward philosophy as guiding principle of reward framework
Range Translating the design and benefit from senio Level 7 Credit 7 Competency Performan 1. Knowled • Und reward • Und orgate 2. Applicat • Formand • Estate orgate • Con • Formate 4 Con • Inverteward • Inverteward • Inverteward • Inverteward • Extent • Inverteward • Extent • Ex
Credit 7 Competency Performan 1. Knowled • Und • Und rewa • Und orga 2. Applicat • Forr and • Esta orga • Con • Forr deve 3. Professi • Esta the e • Inver rewa Assessment Criteria The integra • Exe phila • Exe phila • Esta for t	g the organisation's vision, mission and values into a reward philosophy that guides and decision-making of base salary, short-term and long-term incentives, recognition its. This applies to the process of developing a reward framework, with the support or management.
Competency Performan 1. Knowled
1. Knowled • Und • Und rewa • Und orga 2. Applicat • Forr and • Esta orga • Con • Forr deve 3. Professi • Esta the e • Inverses rewa Assessment Criteria The integra • Exe phila • Exe for t
Criteria • Exe philo • Esta for t	dee Requirements dge in the Subject Area derstand the concept and value of reward philosophy when developing reward strategy derstand the trends of reward strategy (e.g. creating a culture of recognition, total ard strategy) in respective operating markets and jurisdictions derstand the key factors that contribute to the development of a reward philosophy (e.g. anisation's core values, external business environment) tions and Processes mulate a reward philosophy in alignment with the organisation's strategic objectives I human resource strategies ablish a reward philosophy as guiding principle of reward framework for the anisation (e.g. variable pay, emphasis on competence and continuous development) insult and solicit support of senior management for the reward philosophy mulate reward philosophy statements in a simple and concise manner to guide the relopment and implementation of reward strategies sional Behaviour and Attitude ablish an appropriate reward philosophy that matches the size, nature and culture of organisation estigate social and economic trends and their potential impact on the development of ard strategy and philosophy rated outcome requirements of this UoC are: ecution of thorough discussions with senior management before formulation of reward osophy for multiple sources of input and ownership of reward philosophy. ablishment of a reward philosophy as guiding principles to develop a reward framework the organisation (e.g. variable pay, emphasis on competence and continuous relopment) mulation of reward philosophy statements in a concise manner to guide the relopment and implementation of reward strategies.
Remark	