Specification of Competency Standards for the Logistics Industry Unit of Competency

Functional Area - Cargo Transport and Handling

 temporary imports in different countries or regions Understand declaration documents required by different countries or regions for temporary imports Understand the declaration procedures for temporary imports Know about organisations in different countries or regions for handling temporary imports, and their authority and responsibilities Know about the customs supervised warehouses of different countries or regions, thei locations and warehousing procedures Handle temporary imports Ascertain that the shipment is classified as temporary imports Remind the consignor to apply in the country or region concerned for documents required for the declaration of temporary imports Check whether the shipper has prepared all documents required for the declaration of temporary imports Handle or coordinate the declaration of temporary imports Coordinate and arrange for the transportation of goods to warehouses suitable for storage of temporary imports Remind the consignor to apply for documents for the export declaration of temporary imports 	Title	Handle temporary imports
Practitioners should be capable to handle customers' requirements for temporary imports. Level 2 Credit 3 (For Reference Only) Competency Performance Requirements 1. Concepts and knowledge of temporary imports • Understand the concepts and functions of temporary imports • Understand the definition, different requirements, undertaking, inspection and duration temporary imports in different countries or regions • Understand declaration documents required by different countries or regions for temporary imports • Understand the declaration procedures for temporary imports • Understand the declaration procedures for temporary imports • Know about organisations in different countries or regions for handling temporary imports, and their authority and responsibilities • Know about the customs supervised warehouses of different countries or regions, their locations and warehousing procedures 2. Handle temporary imports • Ascertain that the shipment is classified as temporary imports Check whether the shipper has prepared all documents required for the declaration of temporary imports • Check whether the shipper has prepared all documents required for the declaration of temporary imports • Check whether the declaration	Code	LOCUCT201B
Credit 3 (For Reference Only) Competency Performance Requirements 1. Concepts and knowledge of temporary imports • Understand the concepts and functions of temporary imports • Understand the definition, different requirements, undertaking, inspection and duration temporary imports in different countries or regions • Understand declaration documents required by different countries or regions for temporary imports • Understand the declaration procedures for temporary imports • Understand the declaration procedures for temporary imports • Know about organisations in different countries or regions for handling temporary imports, and their authority and responsibilities • Know about organisations in classified as temporary imports • Ascertain that the shipment is classified as temporary imports • Ascertain that the shipment is classified as temporary imports • Check whether the shipper has prepared all documents required for the declaration of temporary imports • Check whether the shipper has prepared all documents required for the declaration of temporary imports • Handle or coordinate the declaration of temporary imports • Handle or coordinate the declaration of temporary imports • Handle or coordinate the declaration of temporary imports • Remind the consignor to apply for documents for the export declaration of temporary imports • Remind the consignor to apply for documents for the export declaration of temporary imports • Remind the consignor to apply for documents for the export decla	Range
Competency Performance Requirements 1. Concepts and knowledge of temporary imports • Understand the concepts and functions of temporary imports • Understand the definition, different requirements, undertaking, inspection and duration temporary imports in different countries or regions • Understand declaration documents required by different countries or regions for temporary imports • Understand the declaration procedures for temporary imports • Understand the declaration procedures for temporary imports • Understand the declaration procedures for temporary imports • Know about organisations in different countries or regions for handling temporary imports, and their authority and responsibilities • Know about the customs supervised warehouses of different countries or regions, thei locations and warehousing procedures 2. Handle temporary imports • Ascertain that the shipment is classified as temporary imports • Check whether the shipper has prepared all documents required for the declaration of temporary imports • Check whether the shipper has prepared all documents required for the declaration of temporary imports • Handle or coordinate the declaration of temporary imports • Coordinate and arrange for the transportation of goods to warehouses suitable for storage of temporary imports • Remind the consignor to apply for documents for the export declaration of temporary imports	Level	2
 Concepts and knowledge of temporary imports Understand the concepts and functions of temporary imports Understand the definition, different requirements, undertaking, inspection and duration temporary imports in different countries or regions Understand declaration documents required by different countries or regions for temporary imports Understand the declaration procedures for temporary imports Understand the declaration procedures for temporary imports Know about organisations in different countries or regions for handling temporary imports, and their authority and responsibilities Know about the customs supervised warehouses of different countries or regions, theil locations and warehousing procedures Handle temporary imports Ascertain that the shipment is classified as temporary imports Remind the consignor to apply in the country or region concerned for documents required for the declaration of temporary imports Check whether the shipper has prepared all documents required for the declaration of temporary imports Handle or coordinate the declaration of temporary imports Coordinate and arrange for the transportation of goods to warehouses suitable for storage of temporary imports Remind the consignor to apply for documents for the export declaration of temporary imports 	Credit	3 (For Reference Only)
 Understand the definition, different requirements, undertaking, inspection and duration temporary imports in different countries or regions Understand declaration documents required by different countries or regions for temporary imports Understand the declaration procedures for temporary imports Know about organisations in different countries or regions for handling temporary imports, and their authority and responsibilities Know about the customs supervised warehouses of different countries or regions, thei locations and warehousing procedures Handle temporary imports Ascertain that the shipment is classified as temporary imports Remind the consignor to apply in the country or region concerned for documents required for the declaration of temporary imports Check whether the shipper has prepared all documents required for the declaration of temporary imports Handle or coordinate the declaration of temporary imports Coordinate and arrange for the transportation of goods to warehouses suitable for storage of temporary imports Remind the consignor to apply for documents for the export declaration of temporary imports 	Competency Ascertain that the shipment is classified as temporary imports Remind the consignor to apply in the country or region concerned for documents required for the declaration of temporary imports Check whether the shipper has prepared all documents required for the declaration of temporary imports Handle or coordinate the declaration of temporary imports Coordinate and arrange for the transportation of goods to warehouses suitable for storage of temporary imports Remind the consignor to apply for documents for the export declaration of temporary 		 Understand the definition, different requirements, undertaking, inspection and duration of temporary imports in different countries or regions Understand declaration documents required by different countries or regions for temporary imports Understand the declaration procedures for temporary imports Know about organisations in different countries or regions for handling temporary imports, and their authority and responsibilities Know about the customs supervised warehouses of different countries or regions, their imports		 Ascertain that the shipment is classified as temporary imports Remind the consignor to apply in the country or region concerned for documents required for the declaration of temporary imports Check whether the shipper has prepared all documents required for the declaration of temporary imports Handle or coordinate the declaration of temporary imports Coordinate and arrange for the transportation of goods to warehouses suitable for storage of temporary imports Assessment Criteria The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency is: • Capable to handle import and export declaration for temporary imports according to		Capable to handle import and export declaration for temporary imports according to customs and industrial procedures and guidelines Remark	Remark	customs and industrial procedures and guidelines