

Specification of Competency Standards for the Logistics Industry
Unit of Competency

Functional Area - Occupational Safety and Health

Title	Assess and implement logistics occupational safety and health management system
Code	LOCUSH404B
Range	This unit of competency is applicable to all kinds of logistics operators and courier and express companies. Practitioners are capable to assess and implement logistics occupational safety and health management system in a logistics company
Level	4
Credit	6 (For Reference Only)
Competency	Performance Requirements 1. Possess the basic knowledge of occupational safety and health system <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand the occupational safety and health management system of the company • Understand the relevant issues and workplaces of logistics operations, and relevant occupational safety and health issues to be performed • Understand the occupational safety and health system and its application on the logistics workplaces • Recognise the potential occupational safety risks of logistics workplaces 2. Assess occupational safety and health management system <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Implement the company's occupational safety and health management system, which includes: • Implement the goals of the management system • Organise the management committee to conduct regular reviews • Executive management system mechanism • Implementation of regulatory mechanisms • Provide feedback mechanisms • Provide training on occupational health and safety management systems for new employees • Support the work of safety committees and working groups
Assessment Criteria	The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Capable to analyse occupational safety and health management system of logistics company; and • Capable to assess and implement occupational safety and health management system in logistics company
Remark	