

Specification of Competency Standards
for the Logistics Industry
Unit of Competency

Functional Area - Sales, Marketing and Customer Services

Title	Handle cargo tracking for customers
Code	LOCUSM213B
Range	This unit of competency is applicable to all kinds of sea freight, air freight and express companies. Practitioners should be capable to use basic information system or other channels to obtain data so as to confirm the locations and conditions of goods in the work flow and inform customers via different channels.
Level	2
Credit	3 (For Reference Only)
Competency	Performance Requirements 1. Possess basic knowledge of cargo tracking <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Understand the concepts of cargo tracking, the technology and equipment used, and the work flow</li> <li>• Understand the importance of cargo tracking services to both the company and customers</li> <li>• Know about the documentation related to transportation of goods, such as bill of lading, HAWB, etc.</li> <li>• Know about the technology relevant to goods identification and global positioning system, etc.</li> <li>• Know about the compatibility and requirements for hardware and software for cargo tracking</li> <li>• Know about the modes of information exchange regarding cargo tracking and their pros and cons</li> <li>• Master the basic knowledge of computer application</li> <li>• Understand the updated development of cargo track and trace system and application like mobile application, automation, alert system...</li> <li>• Understand the technical requirements of information system used for cargo tracking</li> <li>• Understand the work flow and working procedures in the transport and logistics industry</li> </ul> 2. Handle cargo tracking <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Capable to obtain information that can identify goods being tracked and handle tracking of relevant goods</li> <li>• Capable to input data of relevant goods for tracking purpose</li> <li>• Use computer software or operation system or other communication channels to track the locations and condition of goods</li> <li>• Capable to give accurate answer to customers or relay the messages to them</li> <li>• Capable to timely report to superiors and seek advice from them and then answer customers as instructed if the operating system or other communication channels fail to track the locations of the goods</li> <li>• Capable to updated and development trend of cargo track and trace system from the market</li> <li>• Capable to enhance current company's system to be more competitive and convenience in the market</li> </ul>
Assessment Criteria	The integrated outcome requirements of this unit of competency are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Under the guidelines or supervision of the company, capable to effectively use different methods and tools to track the locations and conditions of goods and inform customers of the situation;</li> </ul>

Specification of Competency Standards
for the Logistics Industry
Unit of Competency

Functional Area - Sales, Marketing and Customer Services

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Capable to timely report to superiors any difficulties or errors concerning cargo tracking and seek advice from them; and</li><li>• Capable to provide the updated, upgraded and enhanced application for enhancement of cargo tracking system to the company</li></ul>
Remark	