

Specification of Competency Standards for the Logistics Industry

Unit of Competency

1. Title	Handle claims for container damage
2. Code	LOGGIL408A
3. Range	This unit of competency is applicable to shipping companies and sea freight operators. Practitioners should be capable to understand the course of the incident, insurance law and relevant insurance contract terms; to provide useful claim documents and information for insurance companies and intermediaries and follow up matters related to claims for container damage according to claim procedures so as to protect the interests of the company.
4. Level	4
5. Credit	6 ( for reference only )
6. Competency	Performance Requirements 6.1 Knowledge of insurance terms, claim procedures and requirements of insurance companies, and relevant legislations and international conventions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◆ Understand shipping operation and the risks to containers during operation</li> <li>◆ Understand the basic principles of insurance law, including the principle of utmost good faith, duty of disclosure, insurable interest, contract of indemnity, etc.</li> <li>◆ Understand the impact on the validity of insurance contracts by violation of the basic principles of insurance law</li> <li>◆ Understand the terms of container insurance</li> <li>◆ Understand the impact of relevant legislations and international conventions on handling claims</li> <li>◆ Understand the claim procedures and requirements of insurance companies, including notification period, submission of relevant proofs and claim documents</li> </ul>

	6.2 Handle claims for container damage	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◆ Understand different types of shipping documents and their use</li> <li>◆ Understand the course of the incident through different channels and collect relevant documents and information for lodging a claim; take appropriate measures to minimize the losses</li> <li>◆ Understand relevant insurance terms, the claim procedures and requirements of insurance companies, relevant legislations and international conventions, and handle claims</li> <li>◆ Inform, if necessary, the third party, including the carrier, of the details of the accident or the claim amount; reserve the right to claim damages</li> <li>◆ Assess the total losses and calculate the claim amount</li> <li>◆ Provide useful claim documents and information for insurance companies</li> <li>◆ Understand the survey reports and recommendations from experts</li> <li>◆ Decide whether or not to appoint experts to handle claims on the company's behalf</li> <li>◆ Follow up the progress of the claim with insurance companies and intermediaries, and keep relevant departments informed until the case is closed</li> <li>◆ Collect compensation from insurance companies and intermediaries and handle relevant documents according to procedures</li> </ul>
--	---	---

	6.3 Professionalism in handling claims for container damage <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>◆ Handle claims according to insurance law, insurance terms, claim-related legislations and international conventions, and the claim procedures and requirements of insurance companies</li> <li>◆ Handle claims in a cautious manner</li> <li>◆ Avoid conflict of interests</li> </ul>
7. Assessment Criteria	The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency is: (i) Capable to handle claims properly and provide useful claim documents and information for insurance companies and intermediaries, and follow up matters related to claims for container damage according to claim procedures so as to protect the interests of the company.
8. Remarks	