

Specification of Competency Standards
for the Printing and Publishing Industry
Unit of Competency

1. Title	Know design skills
2. Code	PPPRCT201A
3. Level	2
4. Credit	12
5. Competency	Performance Requirements 5.1 Know principle and elements of basic design and page composition ♦ Make use of basic design elements in composition of page layout 5.2 Understand structure and classification of text and illustrations ♦ Match major fonts and illustrations to enhance expression with layout 5.3 Know expression and relevant application of colour ♦ Make use of appropriate colours to enhance expression with layout 5.4 Use basic drawing and photography skills to express shapes, perspective, lightness, distance and colour ♦ Draw or use major photographic equipment to create effect with shapes, perspective, lightness, distance and colour

	5.5 Assist in processing artwork or file for printing ◆ Assist in producing artwork or file for printing according to provided ideas and making use of basic design elements with appropriate illustrations, photos, text and colours
6. Range	Handle simple layout design with text, illustrations and photos according to instructions and based on application of design concept and perform related tasks in printing design department.
7. Assessment Criteria	The integrated outcome requirements of this unit of competency are: (i) Able to assist in processing printable artwork or file based on ideas.
8. Remarks	The credit value of this unit of competency is based on the assumption that the learner has basic knowledge of design.