Specification of Competency Standards for the Retail Industry Unit of Competency

Functional Area - Transaction Security Technology

Code 107240L5 Description Set up a website security crisis monitoring system and comprehensive website security overall planning solution. When a crisis occurs, the system and solution could prevent websites and sensitive information from being attacked and damaged so as to protect the corporate business. Level 5 Credit 6 (For Reference Only) Performance Requirements 1. Analyse corporate e-business situation and the overall positioning of the website security solution • Analyse the overall business e-business situation, including: business model, information technology and Internet use, website content, Internet marketing strategy etc. • Analysis of corporate website security needs • Evaluate the loss from website attack • Determine the impact of corporate development scale and user demand trends on website function • Use the Penetration Test Tool to test the website current safety standards • Analyse and prioritize the overall website security planning program, for example: • Protect sensitive information • Encrypted data • Protect identity authentication 2. Plan the overall website security solution • Establish a safety monitoring mechanism • Establish as astery monitoring mechanism • Establish an active safety detection mechanism • Establish in a safety monitoring mechanism for website problems • Develop financial plan for the proposed solution and analyse the budget • Develop financial plan for the proposed solution and analyse the budget • Develop implementation details and monitoring • Implement pre-test 3. Exhibit professionalism • Ensure the website security solution would take into account the overall website system performance and non-technical factors such as costing. • Comply with the relevant legislative requirements in developing the website security solution. Assessment Criteria The integrated outcome requirement of this UoC is the ability to: • Understand the overall process of website security planning • According to different corporate e-business environment, devel	1	,
Description Set up a website security crisis monitoring system and comprehensive website security overall planning solution. When a crisis occurs, the system and solution could prevent websites and sensitive information from being attacked and damaged so as to protect the corporate business. Level 5 Credit 6 (For Reference Only) Performance Requirements 1. Analyse corporate e-business situation and the overall positioning of the website security solution • Analyse the overall business e-business situation, including: business model, information technology and Internet use, website content, Internet marketing strategy etc. • Analysis of corporate website security needs • Evaluate the loss from website attack • Determine the impact of corporate development scale and user demand trends on website function • Use the Penetration Test Tool to test the website current safety standards • Analyse and prioritize the overall website security planning program, for example: • Protect sensitive information • Encrypted data • Protect identity authentication 2. Plan the overall website security solution • Establish a safety monitoring mechanism • Establish in mely response mechanism for website problems • Develop financial plan for the proposed solution and analyse the budget • Develop implementation details and monitoring • Implement evaluation and control • Implement pre-test 3. Exhibit professionalism • Ensure the website security solution would take into account the overall website system performance and non-technical factors such as costing. • Comply with the relevant legislative requirements in developing the website security solution. Assessment Criteria The integrated outcome requirement of this UoC is the ability to: • Understand the overall process of website security planning • According to different corporate e-business environment, develop appropriate website overall planning solutions.	Title	Develop website security overall planning solution planning solution. When a crisis occurs, the system and solution could prevent websites and sensitive information from being attacked and damaged so as to protect the corporate business of the corporate business of the corporate of the corporat	Code	107240L5
Credit 6 (For Reference Only) Performance Requirements 1. Analyse corporate e-business situation and the overall positioning of the website security solution • Analyse the overall business e-business situation, including: business model, information technology and Internet use, website content, Internet marketing strategy etc. • Analysis of corporate website security needs • Evaluate the loss from website attack • Determine the impact of corporate development scale and user demand trends on website function • Use the Penetration Test Tool to test the website current safety standards • Analyse and prioritize the overall website security planning program, for example: • Protect sensitive information • Encrypted data • Protect identity authentication 2. Plan the overall website security solution • Establish a safety monitoring mechanism • Establish a safety monitoring mechanism • Establish an active safety detection mechanism • Establish imply response mechanism for website problems • Develop financial plan for the proposed solution and analyse the budget • Develop implementation details and monitoring • Implement pre-test 3. Exhibit professionalism • Ensure the website security solution would take into account the overall website system performance and non-technical factors such as costing. • Comply with the relevant legislative requirements in developing the website security solution. Assessment Criteria The integrated outcome requirement of this UoC is the ability to: • Understand the overall process of website security planning • According to different corporate e-business environment, develop appropriate website overall security overall planning solutions.	Description
Competency Performance Requirements 1. Analyse corporate e-business situation and the overall positioning of the website security solution • Analyse the overall business e-business situation, including: business model, information technology and Internet use, website content, Internet marketing strategy etc. • Analysis of corporate website security needs • Evaluate the loss from website attack • Determine the impact of corporate development scale and user demand trends on website function • Use the Penetration Test Tool to test the website current safety standards • Analyse and prioritize the overall website security planning program, for example: • Protect sensitive information • Encrypted data • Protect identity authentication 2. Plan the overall website security solution • Establish a safety monitoring mechanism • Establish an active safety detection mechanism • Establish imely response mechanism for website problems • Develop financial plan for the proposed solution and analyse the budget • Develop implementation details and monitoring • Implement evaluation and control • Implement pre-test 3. Exhibit professionalism • Ensure the website security solution would take into account the overall website system performance and non-technical factors such as costing. • Comply with the relevant legislative requirements in developing the website security solution. Assessment Criteria The integrated outcome requirement of this UoC is the ability to: • Understand the overall process of website security planning • According to different corporate e-business environment, develop appropriate website overall security overall planning solutions.	Level	5
1. Analyse corporate e-business situation and the overall positioning of the website security solution • Analyse the overall business e-business situation, including: business model, information technology and Internet use, website content, Internet marketing strategy etc. • Analysis of corporate website security needs • Evaluate the loss from website attack • Determine the impact of corporate development scale and user demand trends on website function • Use the Penetration Test Tool to test the website current safety standards • Analyse and prioritize the overall website security planning program, for example: • Protect sensitive information • Encrypted data • Protect identity authentication 2. Plan the overall website security solution • Establish a safety monitoring mechanism • Establish an active safety detection mechanism • Establish implement effective intrusion prevention mechanism • Establish timely response mechanism for website problems • Develop financial plan for the proposed solution and analyse the budget • Develop implementation details and monitoring • Implement evaluation and control • Implement pre-test 3. Exhibit professionalism • Ensure the website security solution would take into account the overall website system performance and non-technical factors such as costing. • Comply with the relevant legislative requirements in developing the website security solution. Assessment Criteria The integrated outcome requirement of this UoC is the ability to: • Understand the overall process of website security planning • According to different corporate e-business environment, develop appropriate website overall security overall planning solutions.	Credit	6 (For Reference Only)
 Understand the overall process of website security planning According to different corporate e-business environment, develop appropriate website overall security overall planning solutions. 		 1. Analyse corporate e-business situation and the overall positioning of the website security solution Analyse the overall business e-business situation, including: business model, information technology and Internet use, website content, Internet marketing strategy etc. Analysis of corporate website security needs Evaluate the loss from website attack Determine the impact of corporate development scale and user demand trends on website function Use the Penetration Test Tool to test the website current safety standards Analyse and prioritize the overall website security planning program, for example: Protect sensitive information Encrypted data Protect identity authentication 2. Plan the overall website security solution Establish a safety monitoring mechanism Establish a safety monitoring mechanism Establish an active safety detection mechanism Establish imely response mechanism for website problems Develop financial plan for the proposed solution and analyse the budget Develop implementation details and monitoring Implement evaluation and control Implement evaluation and control Implement pre-test 3. Exhibit professionalism Ensure the website security solution would take into account the overall website system performance and non-technical factors such as costing. Comply with the relevant legislative requirements in developing the website security solution.
		 Understand the overall process of website security planning According to different corporate e-business environment, develop appropriate website
	Remark	